

Lincoln Event Robo Call

Live Answer:

Hello, I am calling on behalf of Reform for Nebraska's Future this afternoon to invite you to a Property Tax chat tonight in Lincoln with Reform for Nebraska's Future. Nebraskans currently pay the seventh highest property taxes in the nation and experienced a 60 percent increase in the past decade alone and just when we thought the problem could not get worse, legislators now appear to be proposing property tax increases. Reform for Nebraska's Future is committed to getting property tax reform passed. The event will be tonight, Tuesday, March 21st at 5:30 PM CST at the Apothecary Lofts at 140 N. 8th Street in Lincoln. If you have any questions or would like more information, please visit our website at reformfornebraskasfuture.org. Please press 1 if you think you will be able to attend. Thanks and have a great evening.

PRESS 1: Thanks and have a great evening. Paid for by Reform for Nebraska's Future, 402-370-8027

Voicemail:

Hello, I am calling on behalf of Reform for Nebraska's Future this afternoon to invite you to a Property Tax Chat tonight in Lincoln with Reform for Nebraska's Future. Nebraskans currently pay the seventh highest property taxes in the nation and experienced a 60 percent increase in the past decade alone. Just when we thought the problem could not get worse, legislators now appear to be proposing property tax increases. Reform for Nebraska's Future is committed to getting property tax reform passed and would love to have you attend tonight's event. The event is tonight, Tuesday March 21st at 5:30 PM CST at the Apothecary Lofts at 140 N. 8th Street in Lincoln. Please visit our website at reformfornebraskasfuture.org to RSVP and to find out more information about us and our efforts to produce meaningful property tax reform. Thanks and we hope to see you tonight.