

Congressman Don Bacon Script

Begin time February 7 at 6:30 pm CT.

Hello this is Congressman Don Bacon. I came to Washington to fight for what is important to my constituents. That's why I'm hosting a live telephone town hall right now. Hope you will listen in with your neighbors. Just simply stay on the line. The call will focus on the economy, tax reform, the federal budget, national security and other issues important to our community. I would appreciate your thoughts. You also will have the opportunity to submit a question. If you are unable to participate at this time, please call my office at 888.221.7452 or visit my website at bacon.house.gov to get more information. Again, please stay on the line and you will be connected to my live telephone town hall. If you would prefer to opt out of my tele townhalls permanently, please press 9. Thank you for your time.
