Begin time February 15 at 6:00 pm CT.

Hello this is Ashley Muscarella, Chair of the National Education Association's Aspiring Educator Program. I'm calling to invite you to join me right now for a live webinar for new educators and aspiring educators on how to tell if you are working in a great public school. Please stay on the line and you along with thousands of other young educators will be instantly connected. Tonight we'll be discussing how to identify if you are working in a great public school. We'll also identify what students and educators need to be successful and how to advocate for the schools our students deserve. You'll be able to ask our presenters any questions you have live during the webinar. Again, please stay on the line and you'll be connected to our live webinar on how to tell if you are working in a great public school. Following the event if you have any questions please call 202.833.4000.
