Phone Number:

Some telecommunications carriers elect to hire a third party to file required remittances on their behalf. While this is permitted in Nebraska, please note that it is the responsibility of the carrier to ensure filings are made accurately and on time. Authorization of a third-party filer will allow that filer access to the carrier's remittance information and access to the Nebraska Remittance System on behalf of the carrier.

By submitting this form, a carrier may allow a third-party filer to take the following actions:

1. Designate users who may access the system
2. Submit worksheets
3. Revise worksheets
4. View past worksheets
5. Make payments for worksheets, late fees, and administrative fines
6. View payment receipts
7. Use one-time late fee waivers
