

Other supporting documentation (if applicable), such as supplemental speed test data, letters of support from members of the community, supplemental financial information such as the most recent year's federal tax return, etc.

One of ALLO's four values is to be "Local". To support this core value, community engagement is an important component of the ALLO fiber buildout process.

ALLO community outreach emails to were sent to Lincoln Chamber of Commerce President/CEO Jason Ball and City of Lincoln Chief Information Officer Abby Eccher requesting support for the project.

A copy of the outreach emails and resulting letters of support are attached as Attachment M-1.
