Legal Capacity

Carson Barney, owner of Barney Precision Ag, LLC has the commercial applicators license and I am currently working on getting the FAA Part 107. I will also work on drone registration and exemptions that go along with the FAA.

Once in possession of a drone I will get the overweight exemption and finish the FAA Part 137. As the company sits right now, It is currently operating under Bloomfield Ag and Aerial's Part 137.

Everything pertaining to the legal capacity of the business will be completed by the end of May 2025.
