CenturyLink QC commits pricing for our minimum broadband service speed offering will be at or below the FCC's 2024 urban rate survey broadband services benchmarks³ throughout the 5-year commitment period. Summary of benchmarks from the FCC 2024 urban rate survey for minimum 100 Mbps to 1000 Mbps shown below.

Download Bandwidth (Mbps)	Upload Bandwidth (Mbps)	Capacity Allowance (GB)	2024 U.S.

100	20	660	$91.24
100	20	Unlimited	$92.24
250	25	Unlimited	$104.62

1000	100	Unlimited	$134.28
1000	500	660	$133.36
1000	500	Unlimited	$134.29

While the FCC’s 2024 urban rate survey benchmark for 100/20 Mbps service is $92.24 as shown above and this is the amount we used in the application, the Q Fiber brand services we will be marketing do not currently include a 100/20Mbps service. The Q Fiber price offerings in this attachment F highlight that the current pricing for the proposed grant area is the same as most areas we serve nationally. Additionally, our current pricing for the lowest FTTP speed tier is significantly below the FCC’s 2024 urban rate survey benchmark.

As the Q Fiber FTTP broadband service pricing can change over time, the company cannot commit to keeping our national price offerings for 5 years. However, CenturyLink QC agrees to keep a price at or below the FCC’s 2024 urban rate survey benchmark for 100/20 Mbps service for the 5-year commitment period for our lowest tier speed service that meets or exceeds 100/20 Mbps.
