

As an established agricultural cooperative, Country Partners already generates invoice sales reports through our billing platform, AGRIS. This system encompasses our current T 30 spray drone. Additionally, we have the capability to track acres in use and provide as-applied maps through the DJI AGRAS farm management platform.

