

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of the Application of TransCanada )
Keystone , L.P. for route approval of the Keystone ) Application No. OP-0003
XL Pipeline Project pursuant to the Major Oil ) Pipeline Siting Act )

KIMBERLY CRAVEN'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE HEARING
OFFICER'S ORDER

Kimberly Craven, appearing pro-se, respectfully requests the Nebraska Public Service Commission (Commission) to reconsider the Hearing Officer's Order decision of March 31st, 2017 regarding Granting Petitions for Formal Intervention. Craven requests a Briefing Schedule and Oral Arguments for the Hearing on the record to allow her the opportunity to respond to the Motion TransCanada submitted on March 30, 2107 to the Commission that may have influenced the Hearing Officer's decision to limit the intervenors' area of interest.

In support of the Motion, Craven states and alleges:

- 1) TransCanada submitted a Motion on March 31st, 2017 which was emailed or hand delivered to the Commission and mailed via United States mail to all the other intervenors.
- 2) In that Motion, TransCanada, a foreign corporation from Canada, called the intervenors "disinterested parties" throughout the document and disparaged their applications and intent in intervening.
- 3) The very next day, March 31, 2017, without giving any of the intervenors an opportunity to respond, the hearing officer issued his Order limiting the areas in which Craven may submit evidence for the pipeline siting.

4) Craven has reason to believe that the hearing officer was unduly influenced by TransCanada's Motion that disparaged her without giving her the opportunity and that it may have influenced the Hearing Officer's decision.

5) Craven requests a Hearing on the record in order for her to present testimony regarding her interest in the other areas that will be addressed including aesthetic and culture and economic interests.

Submitted this 10th day of April 2107.

/s/Kimberly Craven
