Dear Mr. Farr,

I believe that high speed, high bandwidth Internet available in every home and business in the City of Chadron is absolutely critical infrastructure to the City's future. Those communities that have it will thrive, those communities that do not have it will slowly die-on-the-vine. For this reason, we support every effort of any service provider to invest the resources necessary to provide so-called "last-mile" fiber-optic connectivity to every home, school and business in Chadron, Nebraska. I support Lumen's effort to get it done for us.

Best regards,

John R. Sutherland, Jr.
