¹ Regulatory contact is for Communications Providers. Communications Providers are entities which provide or enable real-time or interactive voice communications and in which the voice component is the primary function (i.e. wireless/cellular, pre-paid wireless, satellite, VOIP). This does NOT include one-way services like paging services.

Managerial contact is for Information Providers. Information Providers are defined as providers which provide service used for transmission of information of a user's choosing regardless of the transmission medium or technology employed, that connects to a network that permits the end user to engage in electronic communications (i.e. Internet Service Providers).
