

Anthony Pope

Senior Vice President & Region Manager

Anthony Pope is the senior vice president and region manager for Cox's Central Region. In this role, he passionately leads and supports approximately 3,100 employees while overseeing market operations in Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Nebraska and Oklahoma. A more than 30-year telecommunications veteran, Pope has extensive leadership experience in operations, sales and marketing, customer experience and employee development. Prior to joining Cox in 2016, he successfully served as a vice president and general manager with Charter Communications.

Pope has received numerous leadership and performance awards throughout his highly distinguished career to include being named one of Cablefax Magazine's Most Influential Minorities in Cable in 2017 and 2018. In 2019 and 2020, Pope was recognized by Cablefax as one of their Top 100 Power Players.

Pope serves as the president of the Louisiana Cable & Television Association Board of Directors. Additionally, he formerly served on the Baton Rouge Area Chamber Board of Directors and the Boys and Girls Club of Louisiana Board of Governors. Pope participated in the 2018-2019 Class XVIII of the NAMIC Executive Leadership Development Program and is a 2017 graduate of the Council for a Better Louisiana's Leadership Louisiana.

Kim Rowell

Market Vice President - Omaha

Kim Rowell currently serves as vice president and market leader for Cox Communications in Greater Omaha. In this role, she is the local senior executive responsible for cross-functional engagement with employees, customers and community and business leaders. She joined Cox in May 2009, and her previous positions include vice president of field services for the Central Region and market vice president in Arkansas.

Kim has more than 30 years of multifaceted leadership experience in the telecommunications industry. She serves on the board of for the Shepherd Center, executive board for the WICT Heartland Chapter and the National Diversity Council for Cox Communications. She is also a Betsy Magness fellow.

Kim holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering with a minor in mathematics from the University of Missouri. She has been married to her husband, Bill, for 27 years; they love to travel and enjoy all outdoor activities.

Mike Berube

Vice President, Engineering and Operations

Mike Berube is responsible for the design, engineering and operational support of our voice, video and data networks for both residential and commercial customers in Cox Communications' Central Region, including Arkansas, Kansas, Idaho, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

Mike has more than 30 years of telecommunications and leadership experience. After serving in the United States Marine Corps, Mike joined Cox in 1997, in the Southwest region. He has also held positions in Atlanta and Virginia prior to coming to the Central Region in 2018.

Mike earned a BA and an MBA from the University of Massachusetts. He is active in the community, currently serves on the board of the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City and is a graduate of Leadership Fairfax.

Corey Force

Vice President, Construction

Corey Force is responsible for construction of the outside plant infrastructure, hybrid-fiber coax (HFC) and fiber access delivering services to residential and Cox Business customers in Arkansas, Idaho, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma.

With more than 25 years of experience in the telecommunications industry, Corey has held multiple roles in the field service, construction and planning organizations. He holds a Bachelor of Science in kinesiology from Southern Nazarene University in Bethany, OK.

Corey has served the board of Okie 811 for 8 years, is currently a member of the Society of Cable Television Engineers and has served on his church board for 15 years.

Jennifer Shipley

Vice President, Customer Care

Jennifer Shipley is responsible for the service delivery of the customer care outsource partner performance. She leads the Customer Experience teams including executive escalations and social media. In addition, she oversees the back-office support functions for all of Customer Care.

Jennifer has more than 25 years of call center and leadership experience in the communications industry. Prior to joining Cox, she was senior director of the loyalty Center of Excellence for Comcast. Additionally, she has held roles within Comcast as a director of operations and manager of technical operations.

Jennifer is currently pursuing her Associates Degree at Butler Community College with plans to transfer to Fort Hays University to complete her bachelor's in business.