

McCook South Project

Attachment L: Match Documentation

Great Plains Communications continues to invest tens of millions of dollars every year to expand its broadband and fiber footprint. While GPC is submitting this project without a direct match for the CPF program, it will leverage 36,000 feet of existing fiber and a weather hardened central office building to help reduce overall costs for the project.